Established in 1951, IOM is the leading inter-governmental organization in the field of migration and works closely with governmental, intergovernmental and non-governmental partners with 174 member states and a presence in over 100 countries. IOM is dedicated to promoting humane and orderly migration for the benefit of all. It does so by providing services and advice to governments and migrants.

IOM is committed to a diverse and inclusive environment. Internal and external candidates are eligible to apply to this vacancy. For the purpose of the vacancy, internal candidates are considered as first-tier candidates.

Context:

Under the direct supervision of the Regional Thematic Specialist – Humanitarian Response and Recovery (DHRR RTS), the incumbent will support the Regional Thematic Unit for Humanitarian Response and Recovery (DHRR RTU), which operates with thematic guidance from the Department of Humanitarian Response and Recovery (DHRR) in IOM Headquarters (HQ), to provide thematic expertise and resource mobilization support to Country Offices (COs); including: monitor and analyse regional thematic trends; support regional thematic project development; support thematic capacity development; and review and support project proposal endorsement processes related to DHRR in the Region.

Core Functions / Responsibilities:

1. Support the DHRR RTS to carry out capacity building, training, monitoring and evaluation and technical support to Country Offices in the Region on thematic areas of relevance to DHRR.
2. Support the DHRR RTS in the reviewing, endorsing and tracking of project proposals developed by COs in the Region.
3. Support the DHRR RTS in the reviewing, approving and tracking of project reports developed by COs in the Region.
4. Identify emerging issues relevant to the thematic area, follow thematic developments at the regional and CO level and contribute to the development of thematic policy and reports in collaboration with the DHRR RTS.
5. Together with the DHRR RTS, serve as a resource person for COs in the Region by providing insights in the latest policy and research developments at global, regional and country levels as well as best practices in project implementation.

6. In coordination with the Regional Project Development Officer (RPDO) and DHRR RTS, support the development of projects that are regional/multi-country, for small COs, and for countries with no IOM presence.
7. Under the guidance of the DHRR RTS, support with drafting and developing regional thematic guidance notes, information sheets, and tools together with other RTUs in the RO.
8. Prepare internal reports, presentations, talking points, speeches, statements and briefings as relevant to DHRR as needed.
9. In coordination with the RPDO and the DHRR RTS, contribute to ongoing knowledge management processes at the RO and COs in the Region, including sharing thematic related information between the COs and RO.
10. In the absence of the DHRR RTS, ensure the continued functioning of the DHRR RTU by coordinating incoming requests from internal or external partners.
11. Participate in conferences, workshops and meetings related to the thematic area of expertise, as required by the DHRR RTS and/or the Deputy Regional Director (DRD) for Operations.
12. Perform any other duties as may be assigned.
